

Glossary: Crossword C-D

Use languagecaster's football glossary (C-D) to complete the crossword

<http://languagecaster.com/football-language-resources/football-glossary/2/>

Across

- The relegation places, the bottom two or three places of the league table - the _____ / _____ [DROPZONE]
- To win the domestic League and Cup in the same season is the _____ [DOUBLE]
- This expression is used when a manager (or captain) has lost the respect of the rest of the players - To lose the _____ / _____ [DRESSINGROOM]
- To play for the first time, e.g. a game or a season [DEBUT]
- Teams not expected to do well though they have a small chance of causing a surprise (two words) [DARKHORSES]
- Position in defence. Usually someone big, strong and good in the air [CENTREBACK]
- This refers to a manager who everyone knows will soon be sacked, will soon be fired. He will soon lose his job - Three words [DEADMANWALKING]
- To cancel, to stop a game from being played (Two words) [CALLOFF]
- to beat another team [DEFEAT]
- A game between two local rivals usually with lots of tradition behind it [DERBY]
- A knock-out competition for English clubs. This tournament is not as prestigious as the FA Cup - The _____ Cup [CARLING]
- Annual competition for the top European club sides [CHAMPIONSLEAGUE]
- When a team does not concede a goal or allow a goal to go in (Two words) [CLEANSHEET]
- When a game, or more usually a league, has an exciting or tight finish - down to the _____ [WIRE]
- The division below the English Premier League, the second tier (previously known as Division 2) - The _____ [CHAMPIONSHIP]
- A free kick, corner or penalty (two words) [DEADBALL]

Down

- A goal that has not been allowed due to a foul, an offside decision or another illegal action [DISALLOWED]
- When a player verbally abuses the referee, to say something bad to the referee [DISSENT]
- This expression is used when a manager (or captain) has lost the respect of the rest of the players - To lose the _____ / _____ [DRESSINGROOM]
- To play for the first time, e.g. a game or a season [DEBUT]
- Teams not expected to do well though they have a small chance of causing a surprise (two words) [DARKHORSES]
- Position in defence. Usually someone big, strong and good in the air [CENTREBACK]
- This refers to a manager who everyone knows will soon be sacked, will soon be fired. He will soon lose his job - Three words [DEADMANWALKING]
- To cancel, to stop a game from being played (Two words) [CALLOFF]
- to beat another team [DEFEAT]
- A game between two local rivals usually with lots of tradition behind it [DERBY]
- A knock-out competition for English clubs. This tournament is not as prestigious as the FA Cup - The _____ Cup [CARLING]
- Annual competition for the top European club sides [CHAMPIONSLEAGUE]
- When a team does not concede a goal or allow a goal to go in (Two words) [CLEANSHEET]
- When a game, or more usually a league, has an exciting or tight finish - down to the _____ [WIRE]
- The division below the English Premier League, the second tier (previously known as Division 2) - The _____ [CHAMPIONSHIP]
- A free kick, corner or penalty (two words) [DEADBALL]